

The Competition

The competition is held in conjunction with the United Kingdom One-act Plays Festivals. The Geoffrey Whitworth Trophy is awarded annually to an original play, debuting in the UK One-act Plays Festivals organized by the:

- All England Theatre Festival
- Association of Ulster Drama Festivals
- Drama Association of Wales
- Scottish Community Drama Association

The competition is administered by the SCDA, on behalf of AETF, AUDF, and DAW.

---

Geoffrey Whitworth founded the British Drama League in 1919. He was heavily involved in drama for many years and encouraged original work. His philosophy was to ensure that writers would benefit from seeing their plays performed and adjudicated.

---

The winning play may have a rehearsed reading at the British Final Festival.

The Geoffrey Whitworth Trophy will be presented to the winning writer at the British Final Festival.
